Order Denying Export Privileges

On June 9, 2021, in the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California, Tian Min Wu (“Wu”) was convicted of violating section 38 of the Arms Export Control Act (22 U.S.C 2778) (“AECA”). Specifically, Wu was convicted of knowingly and willfully soliciting the export of, attempting to export and causing others to export from the United States, a Decoder, a defense article as defined in Category XI of the United States Munition List, without first obtaining from the U. S. Department of State a license for such export or written approval. As a result of his conviction, the Court sentenced Wu to 52 months or time served in prison, three years of supervised release and a $100 assessment.

Pursuant to section 1760(e) of the Export Control Reform Act (“ECRA”), the export privileges of any person who has been convicted of certain offenses, including, but not limited to, section 38 of the AECA, may be denied for a period of up to ten (10) years from the date of his/her conviction. See 50 U.S.C. 4819(e). In addition, any Bureau of Industry and Security (“BIS”) licenses or other authorizations issued under ECRA, in which the person had an interest at the time of the conviction, may be revoked. Id.

BIS received notice of Wu’s conviction for violating section 38 of the AECA. BIS provided notice and opportunity for Wu to make a written submission to BIS, as
